

DUNFORDS ARE HELD

Jury's Verdict Is Attempt to Commit Manslaughter.

OCCURRED AT CLEARWATER

And Forrest Whitford Was the Complaining Witness.

James and Arthur Dunford, who were tried in the district court on the charge of attempting to commit manslaughter while in a drunken row at Clearwater last summer, were found guilty in the fourth degree by a jury yesterday.

The complaining witness in the case was Forrest Whitford, and as a result of the affair which caused the arrest and trial of the two men, he received a number of cuts and bruises on his person.

The case was prosecuted by County Attorney Ammon, and the attorneys for the defense were Adams & Adams. A number of witnesses from Clearwater were present at the trial and gave testimony concerning the affair.

The affray took place in Clearwater some months ago and was the result of too much liquor. All of the men implicated had been with a threshing machine and on the day which the cutting occurred were in Clearwater. In the afternoon while the men were around the town some dispute came up and a general fight occurred in front of a saloon. The Dunford brothers were both in it and from the testimony given by them they had no intention of harming Whitford, but were after another man. As soon as the cutting was done the men were arrested and in the morning of the following day were brought here to the county jail.

A few days afterward they were taken to Clearwater and their preliminary trial was held. Both men were bound over to the district court.

The Dunford brothers came to this county about two years ago and until the affair at Clearwater were not known to have gotten into any serious difficulty before that time. They were addicted to the liquor habit and often were drunk, but not so they did not know what they were doing. Jim Dunford made the statement in the court that he did not remember anything of the cutting and attributed it to the fact that he had been drinking.

The men will be sentenced some time in the near future by the judge and the maximum will be four years in the penitentiary, or a short term in the county jail is the minimum.

TO LEAD GRAND MARCH

Mayor and City Council Will Participate in Carnival Dance.

No feature of the carnival week will be more brilliant or more pleasing than the carnival dance on Thursday night of the street fair week. The committee in charge have announced that the first event of the evening will be a grand march in which everyone in costume will participate. This march is to be led by Mayor Ross and members of the city council in costume. With each a beginning the dance can not be anything but a splendid success.

The committee in charge of the arrangements met at the Carey hotel last night and at that time a number of propositions in connection with the dance were brought up.

Mr. Clarence Fulton, who is chairman of the committee, presided at the meeting and all of the members were present with the exception of Mr. Dold.

It was announced in the committee meeting that Mayor Ross had ordered that the streets of which the dance is to be held, be swept and scrubbed and in the afternoon of the event the ropes for the enclosure will be placed in position.

In addition to the street sweepers and the men who will be in charge of the enclosure will be a band of music.

A committee was appointed last night to secure eight engine headlights. It was also definitely decided to have about four hundred Japanese lanterns and those will be strung along the streets and over the buildings.

In the evening of the street will be band stands for the bands, and the committee in charge will arrange for the construction of them today. The music by the bands will be one of the features of the evening.

The committee has also arranged that the streets will be kept polished and objectionable characters will be kept away from the city part of the city, possibly near the city hall.

Confetti will be much in evidence at the dance, and the ladies of the Children's home have the exclusive sale for the dance. The ladies will have stands on the streets, and the confetti will be on sale all evening.

The committee wish that it should be distinctly understood that the dance is to be a success and that nothing will be left undone to give the citizens in the city a sound of glasses and merry making that they will not soon forget.

IS A PECULIAR CASE

Supposed Crazy Man at County Jail Tells of His Condition.

Since the placing of the supposed crazy man in the county jail there has been considerable comment in regard to the matter. The man was found last night wandering around in the yard of a Mr. Smith in the northwest part of the city. When questioned the man stated that he was Sheriff Simmons and did not know who he was. He stated that he was Sheriff Simmons after interviewing the man decided to place him in a cell, and when that time he has been confined there. At times he appears to be rational and at other times he gets quite violent.

In order to ascertain something about the man a reporter for the Eagle called at the county jail and talked with him. He talked right along without any hesitation and told his name to the reporter. When the man's cell was approached he immediately jumped up from his cot and came to the door, and when asked what his name was he said it was Perry McNeil. The officer who was with him said:

"Show old man, Mr. McNeil."

"I am 37 years old."

"Where are you from?"

"My home is in Hays, Indiana."

"Would you like to go home?"

"The man would like to go home and in answering tones said: "Since you ask me this

I would say Yes! Yes! Yes. Won't you open the door and give me my liberty and let me go home. The burden that is on my heart is awful. Please, oh, please, do something for me. Just say one little word. Say that you will do something for me. Why did you come here to see me?"

"If I could only see Mr. Mulluth. Oh, Mr. Mulluth! If he only knew."

"Who is Mr. Mulluth?"

"A friend! A friend! He is more than a friend. He is my God!"

"Where is Mr. Mulluth?"

"He lives in Ottawa, Kansas. He has a jewelry store there."

"Why do you want to see him?"

"Why, he will get me out of here. He is my old friend. He has always been my friend. You see—I will tell you all since you ask it. I was once in the city prison in Ottawa and he got me out."

"For what were you in prison?"

"They said I stole money and Mulluth got me pardoned. Do you blame me for liking him?"

"Yes, oh yes, I don't know how long it took, but he knew I was here."

"How came you to Wichita?"

"I came here fixing umbrellas. I have done this sort of work all the way from home when I was able."

"How came you in Mr. Smith's yard?"

"I don't know. You see, I am afflicted with the morphine habit. I have a morbid appetite for it and that is the reason, I suppose, why I was there. Sometimes I do not know what I am doing and at no time is my mind clear."

"Have you been in this condition long?"

"Yes, oh yes, I don't know how long I inherited it. Insanity is in the family. I commenced taking morphine because I was sick. I had the rheumatism and the doctors gave me so much morphine that I acquired a taste for it."

"Have you any relatives?"

"I don't know whether I have or not."

"You were once in Topeka, I believe?"

"Yes, I was in the asylum there. I'd rather go back there than anywhere I know of. If they would take me back there and keep me there I would not get out. They treat me well here, though, and I would like to stay here until I get straightened up a little."

OVER CAR OF HOGS

Suit Filed for Recovery of Money in District Court.

In the district court yesterday the case of J. R. Hawthorn and L. M. Marlett vs. the Kansas National Bank and Wichita Livestock Commission company was filed.

The plaintiffs state that on or about the 24th of April, 1900, that they shipped to the stock yards in this city seventy-five hogs, which hogs were consigned to themselves. Defendants were instructed to sell said hogs in this city, to pay the freight and other charges and deposit the balance of the proceeds of the hogs to the credit of plaintiff, J. R. Hawthorn, in the Farmers and Merchants National bank of El Dorado. The hogs were sold on the 24th day of April, 1900, to the Armour Packing company for the sum of $23.73.

It is alleged that defendant instead of depositing the net proceeds of the sale of said hogs to the credit of plaintiff for his own use, drew check from Kansas National bank for the sum of $39.53.

That the defendant, the Kansas National bank, on or about the 24th of April, 1900, received check given by the Armour Packing company as aforesaid from the defendant and collected the money in full and wrongfully and fraudulently and without any right or authority appropriated the proceeds thereof for defendant's own use. The defendant, on May 6, 1900, paid $40.00 on the debt and owes a debt of $20.83, with interest from 6th of May, 1900, at the rate of 6 per cent.

The plaintiffs, through their attorneys, Redd & Krauer, ask judgment and costs against defendants for the sum above mentioned.

The jury in the case, which was out the night before until 9 o'clock and then dismissed, stated yesterday morning to the court that they could not reach a verdict in the case. The vote stood ten to two in favor of some kind of a verdict for judgment for the plaintiff.

It is understood that the case will be brought up in the court again and the same fight come over.

OSCAR SMITH WILL TAKE IT

Ret on Sedgewick County Sum Amidon Is Said to Have Offered.

It was announced last evening that Sam Amidon had offered to bet $50 that Sedgewick county would beat Stanton in a week county 20 votes. The rumor did not get very far until Oscar Smith took after it, and if it is not a sign of the imagination he will have it anchored down before night. Mr. Smith telephoned last night to the Eagle office that he would take that bet double quick and he would do it. It remains for Sam Amidon to leave in sight with the coin and his confidence in the figure.

Mr. Smith is also on the track of the man who, he is reported mostly, would like to bet $50 that Sedgewick county by over $500, that Stanley will not carry the city of Wichita, $50 that he will not carry his own ward, and $50 that he will not carry his own precinct.

TO ORGANIZE CHORUS

Mr. Ralph Dunbar Will Meet Musicians at City Building.

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM

Miss Hinton Selects Eight Maids of Honor.

The large carnival chorus to be used at the queen's coronation in connection with the Dunbar Carnival company, will be organized tonight at the City building at 8 o'clock. Ralph Dunbar, the director, will be present and take charge of the music.

The coronation this year will be one of the most elaborate events of the carnival. The program will be on the order of an operatic vaudeville and will embrace scenes from "Carmen," and "The Runaway Girl." Soloists of note and Pryor's famous band will appear on the program.

The queen in the coronation scene will be attended by 200 guests, representing prime ministers, master of ceremonies, maids of honor, pages, guards, flower girls, soldiers, royal trumpeters, brass band, chorus and orchestra. The entire event is given under powerful calcium and colored flash lights and is said to be one of the most musical climaxes imaginable. The Auditorium stage is being remodeled and enlarged especially for this occasion, and special scenery will be secured.

The committee in charge of the coronation met yesterday and the entire plan for the elaborate affair was gone over. The price for the entrance to the coronation was made. The entire lower floor will be sold at 50 cents per seat, as will the two front rows in the balcony. The other seats will be placed at 35 cents.

The sale of the tickets will probably commence on Monday and will be under the charge of Orville A. Boyle, of the committee.

The queen's float for the flower parade will be elaborately decorated in gold and white, and will be drawn by four horses. These horses will be the fine ones owned by the Jacob Dold Packing company and were placed at the disposal of the committee by Manager Fred Dold. There will also be eight outriders to attend the queen in her float, and these are to be young men to be selected by the queen and her maids of honor.

The exact design of the float for the queen has not yet been announced, but several plans have been submitted for her opinion. At any rate it will be a fine one, and the committee have determined to have the best that can be secured for the flower parade.

At the time of the coronation the crown will be placed on the head of the queen by President Cohn. Mr. J. D. Houston will act as the queen's prime minister, and Sylvester Cohn will be the page and act as crown bearer. The flower girls have not as yet been selected.

The maids of honor who have been selected are: Miss Rose Wallenstein, Miss Pearl Murdoch, Miss Jettie Campbell, Miss Laura Pierce, Miss Anna Brown, Miss Daisy Lynch, Miss Lena Cox and Miss Ada Scott.

CARTER-CALHOUN

Well Known West Side People are

Mr. George R. Carter and Miss Abbie Calhoun, both of the West Side, were united in marriage last Wednesday night at the West Side Baptist church. Rev. The church was brilliantly lighted, which added luxuriance to the canopy of flowers. The bride was escorted by the groom, and the couple slowly and with measured steps made their way to the altar, followed by their bridesmaids, Miss Jessie Calhoun and Miss Wadsworth Smith, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Elmer and Richard Jones, J. H. McChesney, Herman Brown, Ora Carter and Henry Braden.

The bride's father, Mr. Norman Calhoun, in a very touching and effective manner presented his daughter to Mr. Carter for marriage.

After the ceremony was performed the couple were taken to the home of the bride, 25 South Robert street, where, together with a large number of their friends, they partook of an elaborate feast. At a late hour, amid showers of rice and old shoes, they were driven to the Santa Fe depot, where they took the train for Eureka Springs, where they will spend their honeymoon.

HAWK CONTROVERSY ON

Mr. Wernicke Answers Dr. Matthews' Letter.

To the Editor of the Eagle: In answer to Dr. Matthews' opinion of hawks would say that 99 out of 100 sportsmen will go out of their way to kill a chicken hawk. If Dr. Matthews does not know of their destructive habits, would advise him to call on some of the sportsmen people who raise young chickens, or who notice the destruction of young quail when we have a poor growth of weeds for them to hide in. Now, I have seen Dr. Matthews with my own eyes kill from fifty to seventy-five doves in one afternoon and not recover all of them. Would suggest that "Doc" is a little more careful in his condemning one who tries to be a sportsman.

Mr. John Moore Brings Fine News From That State.

Mr. John Moore of the Fourth National bank, returned yesterday from Kentucky and he brings news from that state which will please Republican ears. He visited his old home, Shelbyville, and he found practically all the business men there, formerly Democrats, outspoken for McKinley. He could hardly believe his ears in some instances. He went over to Lexington and there he found the McKinley sentiment rampant. Mr. Moore said yesterday that he did not think there was any doubt of Kentucky going for McKinley.

Mr. Brodell is the Republican candidate for the First senatorial district of Oklahoma. Both are in the real estate and farm loan business at Ponca City. They say that Oklahoma farms are bringing more money than Kansas farms similarly located, "because the Oklahoma farms are better land." When this was disputed they showed fight.

The young people will make this city their home and as they have both lived here for a number of years, have many friends who wish them joy in their wedded life.

COMING EVENT

Cast Their Shadows Before.

The excitement of street fair week has already seized on our citizens. It is contagious. Everybody is infected. All are interested. It does not impede the natural channels of trade, but causes a stronger current. It does not impede the growing volume of patronage of the Hovey Medical association. The lectures of the Old Shaker Doctor draw an increasing audience and the offices on the fifth floor of the Zimmerman building are filled with a contently augmented throng.

PREPARING RAPIDLY FOR FAIR

South Main and Market Present Busy Scene.

On South Main and South Market, where the Street Fair is to be held, nothing can be heard now but the continued sound of many saws and hammers. The work of preparing for a street fair is no small task, and as the business men of Wichita intend to make many improvements over last year's fair, one can surmise the magnitude of the work now in progress. There are about seventy-five men at work daily in constructing the exhibit booths and the massive arches at the street entrances. If the work progresses as rapidly as it has for the last few days, everything will be in readiness in good season for the opening of the grand exhibit on October 1.

Wichita is expending a large amount of money in order that carnival week may be a booming success. The indications are that the attendance from the surrounding country will be much larger than that of last year. It is reported that many people in the extreme western portion of the state are calculating on being here; also that Oklahoma will be well represented by large delegations from the various towns. There is no doubt about the attendance from south-western Kansas. People will be here by the thousands from all over the country.

The first thing that will attract the visitor's attention is Wichita's hearty "Welcome" formed of very large letters which will be illuminated at night by incandescent electric lights. This salutation of burning letters is swung diagonally across the corner of Main and Douglas so that it can be seen from any direction on those streets. This is only one of the many electrical displays which can be seen during carnival week. The street fair will be literally alive with lights.

Another feature of interest will be the magnificent arches now being constructed at the entrances to the exhibits. The main street entrance is by far the largest. It extends clear across the street and occupies a space about twenty feet deep. The arch proper is beautifully designed. The cornice is twenty feet wide and about as high as the highest place in the arch. This whole structure will be plastered with agate and will have all the appearance of stone.

The agricultural exhibit is going to be of special interest this year. This will consist of the whole block on Main between English and Waterman streets. At the entrance there is being erected an arch which promises to be a very novel attraction. Instead of plastering the structure with cement it will be profusely decorated with the products of the soil, such as corn, wheat, cotton, etc. On the inside the booths will be filled with all manner of farm products. There will be not only grain, vegetables and fruits, but also live stock.

At the corner of English and Market the Dold Packing company are building what will be one of the most attractive booths of the fair. It is octagonal in shape and constructed after the Chinese fashion of architecture. Just north of this on the west side of the street is the Fulton Clothing company booth. The architecture of this is Egyptian.

The contrast between these two dealers is one very noticeable, and it gives a westerner who has never had the opportunity to visit the Oriental countries a chance to study the different styles of architecture.

There will be about 200 exhibits besides the numerous stands which have been granted privileges. If all the booths were in a straight line the distance covered would be over half a mile. As it is the booths occupy both sides of the streets from the City building on Main around the block to the same position on Market. The agricultural exhibits will be from English to Waterman on Main.

The work of construction is about half completed already, and the latter half of the work will soon be completed.
